

Most guests that traveled with babies did not cancel their hotel booking, stayed over the weekend and had at least one special request. These guests also booked more often at least lunch or dinner. The data comprises ~12,000 hotel bookings & cancelations in the period from July 2015 to August 2017.

Of guests
who traveled:

with babies...

with children...

without children...

